

One Heart Beating

Screenplay by Sudanya Kirk

One Heart Beating is the epic love story of two star-cross lovers who share the same rare blood type and are in desperate need of a heart transplant. Complicating matters even more, there is only one compatible donor heart available. They undergo a cutting-edge experimental surgery which saves them both. In the aftermath, their lives cross paths and they develop a deep and powerful connection which no one could have anticipated. "One Heart Beating" gives us both beautiful production value and relatable characters.